PRESIDENT UNVEILS SHAFT

By Colonial Dames.

THEIR LAURELS.

ITASHINGTON, May 21.—President Roosevelt today unveiled the memorial shaft erected at Arlington

Around the platform an immense crowd gathered, among whom were many men who saw service in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines. The ceremonies were in charge of Major General John R. Brooke, commander of diers."

Prayer was said by Bishop Satterlee and a Roman Catholic priest, and the entire audience joined in singing the national hymn. Lieutenant General John M. Schoffeld, U. S. A., retired, then read the address of the president of the national society, Mrs. J. W. Townsend, at the conclusion of which the shaft was unveiled amid the cheers of thousands who had surrounded the stand.

As the shaft was unveiled the artillery fired the national salute, after which President Rooseveit delivered the following address:

"Madame President and members of has an erresident and members of the society, and you, my comrades, and, finally, officers and men of the regular army, to whom we look as our models in the wars of years ago—It is a pleasure to be here this afternoon to accept, in the name of the nation, the monument put up by your society to the memory of those who fell in the way with Society of those who fell in the war with Spain, a short war, a war that called for the exertion of only the merest fraction of the giant strength of this nation, but a war, the effects of which will be felt through the centuries to come.

"It is eminently appropriate that the monument should be unveiled today, the day succeeding that on which the free republic of Cuba took its place among the nations of the world as a of those who fell in the war with Spain among the nations of the world as a sequel to what was done by those men who fell, and by their comrades in 1838. We went to war for a specific purpose. We made for Cuba a specific pledge, and we redeemed that pledge to the letter. And I think, my comrades, that we have peculiar reasons to be proud of one of our fellows who served with us in that war, and, under whom, during the last few years. Cuba whom, during the last few years, Cuba has taken these strides forward which ive fitted it to stand alone. I speak of General Leonard Wood.

"And great though the services were that General Wood rendered during the war, they have been surpassed by the inestimable service he has rendered in peace to Cuba, and, therefore, to our nation, for our interest was bound up in the success and welfare of Cuba.

"Spy" is Burned Out. Worcester, Mass., May 21.—A four-story brick building owned by John E. Day and occupied by the Spy as a com-posing, press and stereotyping room, and as a wholesale house for E. G. Higgins' Wall Paper company, was destroyed by fire early today. The flames spread to the Dickinson and Flagg buildings, north and south of the burnbuildings, north and south of the burn-ing building, and to a three-story frame dwelling on Eden street occupied by two families, who escaped. The in-surance of the Spy company is $30,000, and its loss is total. Losses on the Day building are estimated at $150,000 to $200,000. This does not include dam-age to stocks. It was nearly 4 o'clock when the fire was brought under con-trol.

New York, May 21 .- The steamer Korena has arrived from Fort de France, Martinique, having on board two survivors of the steamer Roraima, lost in the St. Pierre disaster. These are Ellery Scott, chief of-ficer, and Charles Thompson (col-ored), assistant purser. Both declined to discuss their experiences. Neither shows much evidence of hard usage. Joseph Fraits, second steward of the Korena, told the following story:

"We did not know that St. Pierre had been destroyed when we left Barbados. We knew that there had been an eruption, because we had heard the noise and had seen great clouds of noise and had seen great clouds of ashes which had covered Barbados. We went to St. Pierre to get the pas-sengers and mail as usual. When we arrived off the town we saw it was in ruins. Clouds of smoke were rising in the air so that we could not see Mont Pelee. Streams of lava were running down to the sea and the water was discolored."

G. Johnson of St. Louis was travel-ing in the West Indies and was at Barbados when the eruption occurred.

The Talisman was 120 miles south-southwest of Barbados when the eruption came. He said: "When she came into Barbados, where we were lying, her decks were covered with the fine blue dust. Here was a ship nearly 125 miles from the island on which the eruption occurred, which experienced even a more heavy shower of dust than we did at twenty miles away. It seemed to go up in the air at a terrific speed and to a height away above the wind, which was blowing from the south-southwest, and then fall in a shower of fine dust at a great distance away."

SERIOUS STRIKE IN PORTLAND Eight Thousand Men May Walk Out

Ere Trouble Ends. Portland, Ore., May 21.-The various unions which were ordered out today by the Building Trades council met to-night and decided to stand by the strike order. President Harry Gurr of the Federated Trades announced of-ficially that if the demand of the planing mill men is not granted by next Saturday, other unions will be called out and an aggressive fight inaugurated.

The strikers say that nothing but a nine-hour day will be accepted by the union, and no proposition on any other basis will even be considered.

The planing mill proprietors announce with great positiveness that they will not yield to the strikers' demands. It is generally agreed that this is the most serious labor crisis Portland has seen, and its effects, if it continues long, will be widespread and disastrous. Business and commercial men generally are anxious that the trouble be arbitrated, but this suggestion is spurned, both by the strikers
